

Executive Proclamation

Office Of The Governor

WHEREAS, Dorthy "Dot" Ray was born and raised in South Dakota and is loved and respected by family, friends, and co-workers alike; and,

WHEREAS, Dot has been a dedicated employee of the State of South Dakota for more than thirty years; and,

WHEREAS, Dot has been the mainstay of the administration of worker's compensation in the State of South Dakota since 1955; and,

WHEREAS, Dot has been called upon to instruct many members of the State Bar in the finer points of handling worker's compensation and public sector labor relations matters; and,

WHEREAS, Dot has countless times demonstrated the ability to locate the misplaced file, to explain the difficult to the dense and to prod the procrastinators, while providing an array of services analogous to those of Ann Landers, Erma Bombeck, Office Supervisor and "Mom" to countless souls during the course of her employment with the South Dakota Department of Labor; and,

WHEREAS, Dot has always been a South Dakota state employee who could be counted upon to cast a ray of sunshine on an otherwise gloomy situation; and,

WHEREAS, March 8, 1985, marks the retirement of Dot from South Dakota state government, an event worthy of public recognition in the State of South Dakota, and it is fitting and proper that the Governor make note of this special occasion and extend to Dot, on behalf of all citizens of this state, sincere thanks and appreciation for a job well done:

NOW, THEREFORE, I, WILLIAM J. JANKLOW, Governor of the State of South Dakota, do hereby proclaim March 8, 1985, as

DORTHY "DOT" RAY DAY

In South Dakota, and I join with her many friends and relatives in wishing her a day filled with joy and friendship. May the years ahead bring Dot an abundance of good health and happiness.
